About the business

Welcome to Cordel! We are building industry leading hardware and software which drives state-of-the-art systems for automated rail asset inspections in a variety of environments. We are currently looking for a Part Time FP&A Manager to join our UK based team on a permanent basis. Want to join us? Keep reading!

In addition to joining a global leader in digital transformation, you can also expect an excellent range of benefits. What's more, we really value Innovation, Cooperation, Excellence and Empowerment. These values will be reflected in your role.

About the role

We require someone to hit the ground running to join our financial team. Your key responsibilities will be, but not limited to:

- Develop rolling forecasts and multi-year financial models to predict future financial performance, updating assumptions as needed
- Assist in annual budgeting process, working with regional teams to gather input and ensure alignment with strategic goals
- Analyse financial variances (actual vs. budget/forecast) and provide insightful commentary to senior management for monthly board meetings
- Maintain accurate cash flow financial models to forecast operating cash flow from operating EBITDA
- Establish key performance indicators (KPIs) to measure financial health, operational efficiency, and business growth, and track them regularly
- Support finance and non-finance functions (such as Sales, Hardware and Delivery teams) with ongoing and ad-hoc requirements. Develop and cultivate strong relationships with stakeholders across the business
- Work closely with regional heads to provide financial insights, explain trends, and support initiatives that impact financial performance (e.g. pricing and profitability analysis)
- Other tasks as required

The Details:

- Part-Time: 3 days per week
- Location: London / Remote
- Hours: 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM (flexibility offered)
- Availability to cover some US / UK / Australia time zones important

The Perks

- Flexible working/WFH arrangements available
- Office near Moorgate
